

John 13 Homework

For the week of Sept. 26

1. What insight, principle, or observation from Sunday's message did you find to be most helpful, eye-opening or troubling? Explain
 2. What might have Jesus done, if he were here today, as an illustration of service instead of foot washing?
 3. Give an example of someone who is a good model of what a servant should look like.
 4. What are some positive traits you see in Peter and what are some negative traits? How are you alike or dislike Peter?
 5. You have heard the phrase "the devil made me do it". Some would say that the devil made Judas betray Jesus. Do you think that Judas had any choice in betraying Jesus? (vs. 18-30)
 6. Read Ephesians 6:10-13. What role do you think these forces play in our daily lives?
 7. Why do you think Jesus didn't explain more plainly about where he was going? (vs. 31-38)
 8. Do you ever wish that God would explain more fully what is going on in your life? Give an example. Why doesn't God always make things perfectly clear to us?
 9. Have you ever felt like Peter in that you thought you were fully committed to God but then you let him down? Explain.
- Bringing it home:
10. As a group, brainstorm some ideas for service projects that you could do together.
 11. Do you have any action steps to take away from this week's message or study?
